Describe Me Game

Pull a sock out of the bag and ask the children to describe it.

You could start by asking for the size, then colour, then pattern, then all three.

Then ask for it to be described in a different order.

For older children ask them to add descriptive words. For example: use tiny or little instead of small, sunshine yellow.

Match Me Game

Put all of the socks in a basket, or into the bag, or (easier) in a pile.

Pull one sock out and ask the children to find one the same.

How quickly can you find it?

Race against each other.

(You could use a stopwatch and race against the clock).

Guess What's Inside

Place an object inside one of the socks. Ask the children to guess what is inside the big, red, stripy sock? Or the small, green, spotty sock. Take the opportunity to use the language of size: too big, too small, bigger than, smaller than.

Turn it around and ask the children to guess which sock the toy is hidden in. Ask if they think it will be in a big sock or a little sock.

Arrange in Sequences

Either peg onto a washing line or arrange on the floor.

Arrange the socks in sequence...

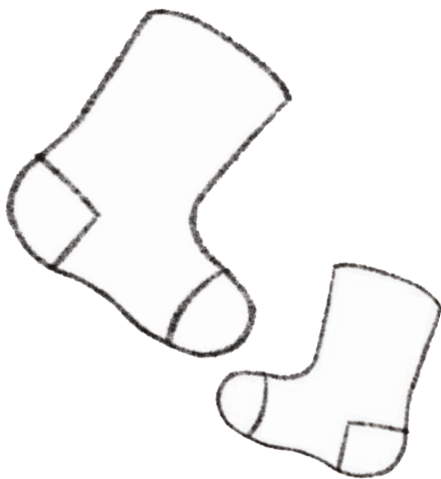

- Big, small, big, small
- Yellow, purple, yellow, purple
- Stars, stripes, stars, stripes
- Spots, plain, spots, plain

Encourage the children to describe the attribute of each of the socks as they place them in the sequence.

Find Me Games one attribute

Put all the socks in a basket or bag.
Ask each child to find you one that you describe using just one attribute... size or colour or pattern.

For example: find me a big sock,
or find me a yellow sock, or find me a stripy sock.

Make it harder by asking for a pair of socks.

Find Me Games four attributes

You can play this if you have the Pack of Pants and Sack of Socks. Put all the pants and socks in a basket or bag.

Ask each child to find you one which you describe using four attributes...
sock/pants, size, colour and pattern... change the order each time you ask.

For example: find me the big, green, spotty pants, or, find me the sock that is small, spotty, and purple.
